NOTICE REGARDING PRO SE DIVORCE / CIVIL ACTION FILINGS

To Whom It May Concern:

If you are considering filing for a pro se (without an attorney) divorce and/or civil action, please be aware that the staff of the Crawford County Superior Court Clerk's Office CANNOT assist you in the completion of any legal forms, proceedings or documents, nor can we provide legal advice pertaining to civil actions filed in Superior Court.

However, there are resources available online where you can find instructions and forms for filing such civil actions such as divorces (with or without minor children), legitimation, modification of child support, petition to change name, etc. The following represent some of the websites where such forms and packages can be found:

<http://chattahoocheefamilylawcenter.org>

<http://lawlibrary.cobbcountyga.gov> (Click on Forms)

<http://southernjudicialcircuit.com> (Click on Legal Forms)

Due to the changing nature of the law and factual differences in each person's situation, the forms and information contained on these websites may be outdated, may not be applicable to your situation or both.

It is strongly recommended that you seek professional legal advice when filing for a divorce or any civil action in Superior Court. Use of any of the forms found on the above websites (or from any other source) is at your own risk. Forms found online may or may not be appropriate in your situation. Any desired outcome from the use of the forms cannot be predicted or guaranteed.

Sincerely,
